ORAL ORDER
(Passed on 5.4.2006)

The following oral order of the Court was passed by Dilip Raosaheb Deshmukh, J.

The only point urged in this appeal is that the learned M.A.C.T. has failed to consider the grievous injuries sustained by the applicant. However, upon perusal of the record, we find that medical evidence was not adduced by the applicant to substantiate the fact of any grievous injury sustained by him. The compensation awarded by the learned M.A.C.T. cannot be faulted with.

2. The appeal being devoid of merit is dismissed.
